

Put me
down, your children
are talking
to you

A black smartphone is centered in the image. On its screen, there is a white rectangular note with a folded top-right corner. The note contains the text "Look where you're going!". At the bottom of the phone's screen, there is a white text element: "— screen + ...". The background consists of a series of concentric, slightly irregular green and black circles, creating a hypnotic or tunnel-like effect.

Look
where you're going!

Why don't you put me
down?
Your eyes
are hurting

— screen + ...

How about using an alarm clock
instead
of me?

— screen + ...

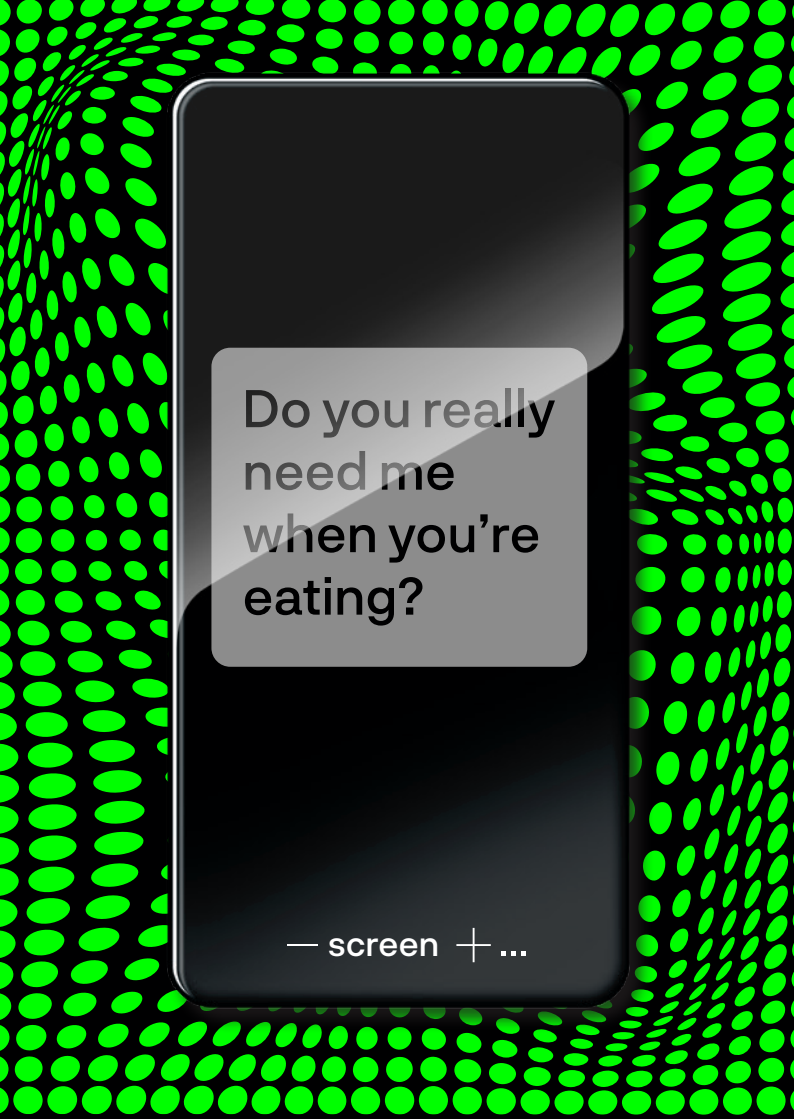

I'm not a
teddy bear,
why don't you put
me away
before bed?

— screen + ...

Put me away,
classes are starting

— screen + ...

Do you really need me
when you're eating?

— screen + ...

Don't just film it, enjoy
it for real!

— screen + ...

I'm out
of charge,
will you cope
without me?
